

Minority interests desperate to subvert popular will is destroying democratic process as it violates both public trust and national law. You must stop this illegal activity.